Request a Tour and/or Student Panel Session

PRLACC's Mission

The Puerto Rican/Latin American Cultural Center's mission is to improve the status of Latinos and to promote awareness, understanding, and appreciation of the richness and diversity of Latinos and Latin American cultures. PRLACC works independently and collaboratively with University departments and community organizations to sponsor educational and cultural programs, provide services and leadership opportunities, foster connections, and educate the University and extended community about Latino issues. Our services and programs seek to enhance and support student, faculty, and staff recruitment and retention, as well as enrich the multicultural climate of our community.

Submitting a Request

The Center welcomes visitors and is open to the public. Tour and/or panel sessions are available during our regular business hours, on request. Both tours and panel sessions are conducted by UConn students who share information about the center as well as their experiences at UConn.

Please submit a tour and/or panel session request 5 business days prior to your visit. It can be submitted in person at the Center, faxed to (860) 486-4642, or e-mailed to prlacc@uconn.edu.
